RAILROAD EMPLOYEE ROBBED AND KILLED

Colored Laborer Killed in Railroad
Yards By Unknown Hold-Up
Artists Saturday Night

VICTIM'S MONEY WAS STOLEN

Murder, added to robbery of the victim, adds another to the list of happenings in the crime wave that struck Paris some days ago, in which a number of robberies were perpetrated.

Saturday night, Griffin Hatcher, colored, and another negro named Arthur Parker, employees of a railroad labor camp, were passing through the South Paris yards of the Louisville & Nashville. As they were passing a cut of cars on a side track, Parker being in advance, a gruff voice ordered them to "Stick 'em up." When the command was repeated a second time, two negro men, one of a large stature and the other a small man, stepped out, with a gun in their hands. Parker ran to the weeds at the side of the track. As he fled he heard two shots. Roundhouse employees hearing the shots, came up and found Hatcher lying on the ground with a pistol shot wound in his abdomen, and another through the heart.

Hatcher lived but a few minutes after the men came up. His murderers made their escape. Before he died Hatcher made a statement to Foreman Bradley and others to the effect that he had a pocketbook containing a large sum of money, and some insurance papers in his hip pockets. The pockets had been turned inside out and the contents removed. Letters were found in his pocket from an aunt, Mary Owen, in St. Louis, Mo. The body was removed to an undertaking establishment while communication was established with his aunt in St. Louis. Coroner Davis was summoned. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts given above.

Two men who had for some time been about the railroad camp, and who have since disappeared, are under suspicion, and efforts are being made by the police and railroad authorities to locate them.

SUIT FILED FOR DAMAGES

Alleging Attempted Bribery, Mrs.
John Cunningham Files Suit
Against A. S. Thompson

ASKS $25,000.00 AS DAMAGES

In a petition filed yesterday in the office of Circuit Clerk Wm. H. Webb, Mrs. Lavinia E. Cunningham, of Paris, asks for damages in the sum of $25,000 against Albert S. Thompson, of Paris, former Sheriff and Representative from Bourbon county in the Legislature. In the petition which was sworn to before a Lexington Notary Public, and which does not name her attorney, Mrs. Cunningham states, in part:

"Plaintiff states that on or about the fifth day of August, 1921, and just prior to the day on which the primary election of 1921 was to be held, the said defendant approached the plaintiff and corruptly and wickedly and with the intention of fraudulently and corruptly influencing her to cast her vote for one Bedford and against one Collier, both of said persons being candidates for the nomination for the office of Sheriff of Bourbon county, and did say to the plaintiff in the presence of divers persons that if she would vote for one Bedford and against Collier, that he would extend to this plaintiff financial assistance . . . and she did understand him to mean that he would pay her sums of money to cast her vote for said Bedford and against Collier. She states that the proposal greatly shocked and humiliated her and caused her to suffer great mental and physical anguish and humiliation and mortification, all to her great damage in the sum of $25,000. The document was signed, 'Lavinia E. Cunningham, Plaintiff, in her own behalf.'"

TAXPAYERS HOLD INTERESTING MEET

Taxation Subject of Discussion and Consideration At Meeting Held
In Court House.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

In response to a call issued by Henry S. Caywood, of North Middletown, State Senator-elect, several hundred farmers, business men and tobacco growers assembled at the court house in this city Saturday afternoon, to discuss propositions and suggestions for lowering the present tax rates.

In the organization of the meeting Mr. John W. Jones, of the North Middletown precinct, was appointed chairman and Ollie Soper, secretary. Mr. Caywood, in a brief address, explained to the audience the object of the call, stating among other things, that the people of Bourbon county were entitled to a reduction of their taxes, and that he believed they could get it. Mr. Jones offered a set of resolutions, and before the vote was taken County Judge George B. Tarterton made a spirited address, in which he defended the County Road Commissioners against what he termed unjust criticism that had been turned against them. Prof. Lee Kirkpatrick, superintendent of schools, submitted statistics showing the remarkably low rate of taxation for public schools in Kentucky, as compared with other States. Rev. W. E. Ellis spoke in favor of upholding both the schools and the county roads. Representative James H. Thompson spoke of measures he would attempt to have passed at the coming session of the Legislature to give relief to the taxpayers.

On a large blackboard was displayed figures showing the increase in taxes from 1917, when the present tax rate went into effect, and the present year, in Bourbon county, which Mr. Caywood explained in detail to the audience.

The resolutions adopted, after reciting a statement of facts concerning the present rate of taxation petitions the County Court for a reduction of the rate from 50 cents to 35 cents, and asks the State Senator-elect and Representative-elect to use every effort in the Legislature to have the State tax rate reduced.

DONATIONS TO THE CANE RIDGE CHURCH FUND.

Mr. J. Will Thomas, of Paris, acting as treasurer for the Cane Ridge church fund, received a message from Mrs. May Stoner Clay, stating that she was sending him a donation of several hundred volumes of "The History of Old Cane Ridge Church," written by her uncle, the late Capt. James R. Rogers, to be sold for the benefit of the fund. This history of the famous old church forms one of the most interesting of the many contributions to the religious history of this old church.

Mr. Thomas also received a letter from Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, of Washington, D. C., famous U. S. food expert, pledging a substantial sum to the fund. In his letter Dr. Wiley said, in part:

"I have just seen the statement that a fund is being raised to preserve Cane Ridge Church. My mother, Lucinda Wire Maxwell, was born in Cane Ridge in 1809, and my grandfather was a member of Barton W. Stone's Church. Last spring I made a pilgrimage to my mother's birthplace, and the only village I found at Cane Ridge consisted of the old church. I want to be one of the contributors to the fund to restore and preserve this historic spot."

PARISIAN ROBBED IN WEST

Somewhere in the great city of San Francisco, Calif., somebody is having a good time with $150 of perfectly good money belonging, or which did belong, to Kenney Kiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Kiser, of Paris.

Young Kiser, who saw active service during the world war as an aviator in France, is in the Government service near San Francisco as a wireless radio operator. While in San Francisco recently on a combined pleasure and business mission, he left his suitcase, containing $150 in money, besides other valuables in his hotel room when he went down to dinner. When he returned he discovered his room had been visited by a sneak thief, his suitcase broken open and the money and valuables missing. Other guests at the same hotel reported losses of money and jewelry at the same time.
